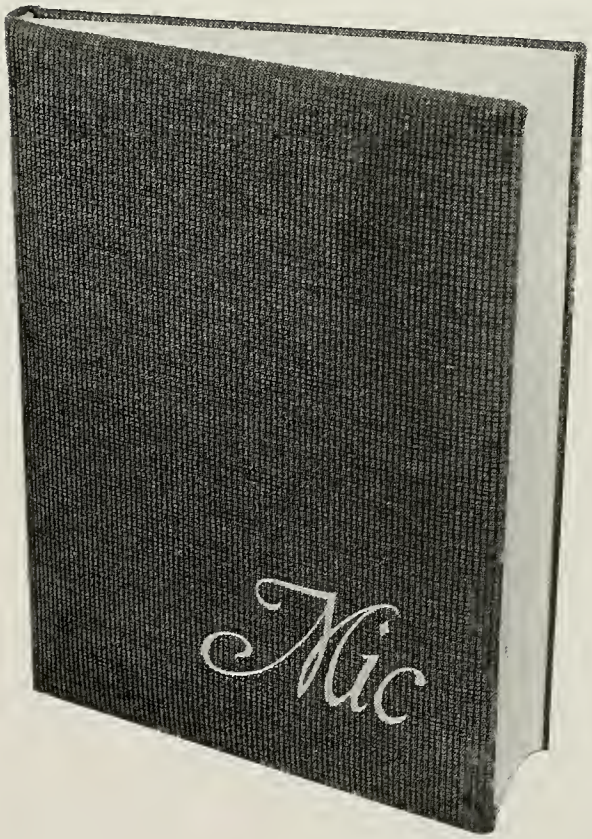
SIMMONS COLLEGE PRESENTS . . .



THE MICROCOSM—

THE SMALL WORLD THAT IS SIMMONS

Just as this "small book within a book" shows something of the design and content of the large book, so does this 1939 MICROCOSM show something of the "small world within a world" that is Simmons, portraying the college life of the 1500 girls who daily pass through the doors of 300 The Fenway.

STORY OF

THE PLACE
THE PEOPLE
THE EVENTS

FOREWORD

Simmons' customary progressive spirit found fertile ground in the production of the 1939 MICRO-COSM. The idea for this book, based on the "small world" that is Simmons, was born just at a time when LIFE had popularized a pictorial record of the present world. So here is a pictured story of "Sally Simmons" from September, 1938, to June, 1939—the "book within a book" portraying the epic of Simmons in three phases—"The Place" . . . "The People" . . . "The Events".

Rulers of the Mob . . .

Student Government

Acme of student activity . . . Student Government Council with thirteen members . . . thirteenth showing this year's growth of Social Activities Committee . . . Dormitory Board and Council working hard to regulate campus life . . . Honor Board's success shown by little activity, proving that Sally Simmons can manage her own life . . .

Alice O'Connor, President

Advisory Board the all-seeing guardian angel . . . two representatives from each class also on their own executive boards, the best carry-over of Stu.G. to the four classes . . . blue and gold badges, proudly displayed on Seniors' gowns . . . Old English Dinner and lords and ladies in satin . . . Bib Party for Freshman children . . . fragrance of corsages and victorious smiles and pleased congratulations at Stu. G. May Party . . . for first time, transfers welcomed in Freshman style . . . freedom of discussion and friendly dispute at Town Meeting . . . at last, a marriage course for upper classmen, in reply to suggestion box requests . . . vying with administration with all-college activity bulletin board . . . after all, we do govern ourselves!

Honor Board

Unproctored hour exams . . . personal honor of each student merging into the standard of the college . . . old stand-by of Stu. G. initiated by first student club when Sally Simmons was a mere child . . . "exists by you and for you" . . . Board of eleven students six caps and gowns . . . beginning-of-the-year explanation to bewildered freshmen . occasional serious moments of judging fellow students . . blue and gold badges . . . friendly coöperation from instructors . . . Frosh English themes and upperclass secretarial transcriptions . . . News articles under "Student Government Says" . . . effectiveness of faculty committee on examinations in changing examination types . . . typed reports with only barest facts posted on Stu. G. bulletin board . . . steady decrease in number of violations from year to year . . . not policemen, but "this younger generation" trying to prove its ability in managing own affairs . . . rock-bottom foundation of dormitory regulations, for obeying rules depends on honor.

on your honor . . .

Dormitory Council

The second Monday of the month . . . House Chairmen gathering round table in Council room . . . "Dygie" presiding . . . Seniors at head of table . . . so dignified in their caps and gowns . . . reading of minutes . . . meeting under way . . . discussing rule changes . . . most frequent subject . . . radios . . . point of many arguments . . . much noise and many theories . . . five o'clock meeting adjourns . . . scampering to corner drug . . . rehashing over a "coke."

The powers behind . . .

Dormitory Board

Relentless pursuit of justice...much debate over rule technicalities...much dramatization of hair-raising taxi-rides... much jolting of Freshman conception of time in relation to Simmons universe... The Powers That Be, sifted from Dorm Council and armed with that body's book of law...the venerable board...investigation of practice of theories therein... not only the girl but also the rule discussed...both considered innocent until one is proven guilty...result: girl may not appear at next Prom...or rule may not appear in next Frosh Bible.

Typical questions are...did you know you were going to be late?...yes...did you try to telephone?...yes, but we were out of nickels and telephoning would have made us even later...did your escort try to hurry?...yes, a policeman held us up on the corner of Kent street for trying to run over a man...how many minutes late were you?...sixteen?...is this the first time you've ever been late?...yes... thank you, Mary, you may go, if there are no more questions ...sentence...one week of social pro at 7:30 with no men callers...and then there's always the girl who was two minutes late because her date...kissed her good-night.

Dormitory Advisory Board

Miss Mesick...up and coming professors ...preferably Simmons grads...meeting Stu G President and Vice-President... considering ways and means of making dormitory life pleasanter...and safer... for students living in them...suggestions from faculty and student body...going before Dorm Council...further discussion at Advisory Board meetings...first hand info on dorm problems...by Mrs. Cooper and Miss Christian sitting in on meetings ...Miss Mesick chairmaning board... Miss Wilkinson taking down the minutes.

It is here that ultraimportant matters are hashed over...radios in rooms... smoking in th eliving rooms...and ultraimportant concessions are granted ...one-thirties every night in the week for Juniors and Seniors!

The middle ground...

Social Activities Committee

Social streamlining for Simmons. . Stu G's fastest growing sprout has so many functions the calendar has to run to catch up with it. . . minor revolutions: marriage course for career women. . . South Hall swamped with teas and tea dancers. . . hands-across-the-Charles affairs for freshmen. . . bigger and better Town Meetings . . . Campus dances. . . Transfer Tea poured in Study Hall.

Let's have a tea!. . .

All results from a social symphony composed of a big notebook carried by a petite chairman. . . Faculty coöperation. . . loss of sleep. . . day-dreams. . . interviews . . . posters. . . nine overworked members . . . conferences with the Dean. . . solemn meetings in Council Room. . . date juggling. . . news items. . . noteboard full of requests. . . organized glamour. . . dependable dormitory subsidiary.

Growing in three years from a babe in arms to a lusty runabout. . . thanks to student coöperation, frivolous dynamos with ears to the ground for suggestions, hands at petition slips to carry them out.

Assembly Committee

Purpose. . . to uphold the motto "All work and no relaxation makes Simmons Dull." . . . resulting in the ultimate of diversified entertainment at Friday Assemblies.

Highlights. . . Sanroma, the pianist, with memories of crowded aisles and spellbound listeners. . . antics of a newspaperman scooping the hurricane of '39 via our Mr. Playfair. . . Refugee Committee

Believing that "liberty and justice for all" should not be an empty phrase . . . Simmons students this year forming a Refugee Committee . . . aiding persecuted fellow-students in other countries . . . knowing that culture and learning can't survive if free inquiry is trampled upon . . . wishing to take active measures to help preserve academic freedom.

College authorities responding to spontaneous and enthusiastic outburst . . . offering as many as five scholarships for refugee students provided the student body at Simmons could raise the money for support . . . the committee setting the goal at $1000 . . . and raising the money in three months.

Employing striking and ingenious methods and reaching the goal . . . huge swastika hanging on the walls . . . beside a sign: "Blot This Out" . . . for every dollar contributed, a star wiping out the Nazi hooked cross.

Orson Welles doing his share . . . previously scaring people out of their homes with imaginary war . . . now driving them by the hundreds to hear him speak at mass meeting in college . . . Reverend Donald G. Lothrop, Maxine Sweezy, and Robert C. Dexter speaking at same time on behalf of the Committee's aims.

Blot out the Swastika! . . .

Similar committees springing up in colleges all over the country . . . formation of Boston Committee to Aid Student Refugees, of which Simmons is a member . . . soon after, the Intercollegiate Committee being established in New York to coördinate work of colleges.

Simmons students standing with the youth of America . . . determining to fight all intolerance—religious, racial, academic or political—showing world they believe ideals and traditions of democracy are worth upholding.

Marching, marching, onward...

Step-Singing

We do but sing because we must...lots of seniors in caps and gowns...choosing partners..."now listen, kids, on that second song try to"...lanterns for every other one..no—every third one...Pat moving down one..."I'm taller than you"...where's Peggy...Ready...Marching, Marching Onward...somebody's man ducking out of the way...end of line staying three words behind...keeping out of step...keeping in tune..."Quite a few juniors there on the left"..."doesn't Ginn look cute?"..."give her a lantern"... Sophomores standing on the right...trying not to trip going up the steps...wandering about—Freshmen...down there, all alone...but singing...seniors, one to the left...one to the right..."hey, there's Bets, thought she had a date"...groping for words to the first song...white glove waving at the foot of the steps...everybody singing...Stand by Simmons and the Blue...and gold...louder!...that was pretty good...the Seniors saying to the Juniors..."here, look on with me"...moon coming up...harmonizing from there in front...Pals, Dear Old Pals...Father Time Is a Crafty Man...campus looking so picturesque by lantern light...even the commuters getting the old dorm spirit... Hail Alma Mater...down the steps... "meet you in Fran's room"...and down the path..."Gosh, you know all the words"...We Pledge Our Love to Thee... "good night, everybody!"

Our first step-singing...

"God rest you, merry gentlemen"...

Old English Dinner

The Night of Old English Dinner... hostesses scrambling to meet guests... South Hall a scene of gaiety... toot of bugle...Court swishing with lace and brocade...guests following into Ye Olde Refectorie...Sir Robert of Rankin, Warden of Back Steps, pulling jester's leg...Sir Robert of Gay stammering Saxon...Court and guests trying to balance peas on a knife...Carollers struggling with dripping candles...Dickey's muscles straining under blazing plum pudding...hushed hall ...dim candles..."Silent Night."

Sophomore Luncheon

Refectory...spring flowers...green and gold...even green and gold food...and wasn't it fun...good old Peter Rabbit... there never was such a fat, furry, beautiful rabbit...Mr. Wiley's bear story...woo-whoo...and Peter's wife toe-dancing hither and yon...innovation, that...but a successful one. Still it couldn't quite compare to '39's luncheon with Popeye stealing honors from all other guests... will we ever forget the spinach?

The Lord and Lady...

Mascot Mastication...

Freshman - Junior Wedding

Do you remember one November Saturday noon
When we all stood and listened to a wedding tune
Then went to Shadow and Substance for the honeymoon?
Remember Wedding?

The famous guests came bowing and smiling down the aisle
"Hitler" and "Mussolini" each with a broad smile,
Saluting to left and right amid the cries of Heil!
Remember Wedding?

"I, '40, take thee, '42 . . ."

"Corigan" walking backward without a trace of fear
"Jean Davis" falling and sprawling along as thousands cheer;
A hush, and then Fran's voice so sweet and clear.
Remember Wedding?

Bib Party

Freshmen as upperclassmen see them... upperclassmen as Freshmen see them... doughnuts and coffee in the morning... clever entertainment as a mirror, made in Freshmen sizes...broken tradition with no receiving line...Mr. Fink hiding the Scotchmen by driving them around the block until curtain bell...labels on Stu. G. and class officers, as if Freshmen didn't know them anyway!...newspapers softening rush seats on floor...stage like a cheese box palace for a diminutive rat...Jock in kilties...Fun-fest...writer's cramp on a larger scale...Sophomores grown-up in pink and blue aprons...Effie Experience initiating Sally Simmons and Polly Poise ...bibs, bibs, bibs...names, names, names ...Mr. Beatley needing liniment for his right hand and a shorter name...a fuzzy white dog...Freshmen, keeping bibs to count friends in Senior year...Junior sisters proudly introducing new life to Simmons...warned to come informally; appearing in sophisticated best...the pipers "flinging" on freshman laps...autographs and spilled coffee...Sally Simmons with tired feet, empty pocketbook, and a locker key...young Evans watches its first bib party, and echoes "good-byes" over Campus.

Signing up . . .

Daisy Chain

"You pick, and pick, and pick . . ."

To heck with all the daisies
To heck with daisy chain
To heck with every flower that ever had a name!
And if you come to Simmons
Don't get on Daisy Chain
For you pick and pick and pick and pick
And then by gosh it rains!
Rainy Saturday . . . fair Sunday . . . Juniors carrying traditional daisy chain through twilight . . . accompanying Seniors to colonnade . . . taking new places on steps . . . new Seniors.

"And then, by gosh, it rains" . . .

Senior-Faculty Supper

Appointment with faculty member at 6:45 . . . finding him if you're smart . . . endless mob chattering away . . . working up a good appetite . . . food—it's about time . . . scrumptious color scheme . . . toastmistress Libby Pennock disclosing Simmons kidnapping racket . . . everyone is aghast . . . somebody's guilty, everybody's amused . . . President Beatley punning a mean one . . . gangsters and such given the works . . . Dr. Hyatt taxing our mentality . . . what with sleep and no water . . . Miss Kelly discussing life and us . . . convincing us it's necessary . . . Mr. DeMille being of good cheer . . . scraping of chairs . . . and it's all over.

Good Cheer aplenty . . .

Let's see, fill the water glasses, then what? . . .

"By the authority vested in me"...

GRADUATION

Class Day

What weather...remember last year?... millions of daisies...as many bugs...relatives galore...last step-singing...Kay... Ivy Planting...turning over steps to Juniors...lucky Juniors...their president in cap and gown...ours without...that means we're really out... now for Class Day Dance...with new summer formals crisp as gardenia leaves...Peggy...soft lights...sweet music.

Graduation

Caps and gowns...speeches...stocks that won't tie as any civilized ascot should... Riding

All right!...Let's go!...Girls in trim habits trotting and cantering along wooded paths of the Arboretum or the Fenway ...sun thru tall pines...smell of leaves in October...rocks and hills...a tumble, laughter, on again...instructions from Nicky, a former Russian Cossack rider... "You, girl in green, toes in! Relax reins! ...I want a gentle horse...this one won't shy, will he? I like Lady Luck"...practice during winter months in the ring...round and round we go...and afterwards as weary as though we'd been an hour on the trail...a growing group of Simmons horsewomen headed this year by Janet Black...favorite seasons for riding in fall before Thanksgiving...in the spring after Easter.

The Gymkhana

Indian pastime grips Simmons girls... high excitement...horses...grooms... girls...private circus...visions of gold-inscribed blue ribbons...pleas meant only for horses' ears..."Gosh, I hope Brownie feels coöperative today"...stomachs experience "that sinking feeling."

Thunder of horses' hooves punctuated by shrieks...cheers...audience jumping madly up and down...circus turned race track..."Come on!"..."Kick him!"

Equestriennes like modern knights at full tilt...all to grab the potato first... riders with attention focussed on egg precariously balanced on spoon...riders tumbling from horses...negotiating the long climb back to saddle...button-sewing contests...egg and spoon races...potato races...just plain races...saddling and bridling contests...musical chairs...object—a ribbon...result—high spirits, weary bones.

Swimming and Life-Saving

SPLASH!... it's a Simmons mermaid breaking difficult headlock or winning freestyle race... executing a one and a half... applying artificial respiration with dazzling alacrity at the Y.W.C.A. or Brookline pools... and all with a purpose... how can a "Home Ecer" advise a "balanced diet" without a streamlined figure to illustrate... how can a Simmonsite develop a collegiate taste for goldfish without exploring their natural habitat... P.S. feature writer telling us that "men are like fish"... why wait for them to bite at the line when we can learn to swim and dive right in after them? Swimming once a week at the Brookline Pool... no official meets but much splashing... association looking forward to more active competition... Schunecht plunging ahead to presidency.

"Now try it again..."

Pidgie chief lifesaver... Red Cross Capt. Jack Wallace tutoring mermaids in art of hair-carrying, grip-breaking ... moving pictures of underwater approaches, expert carries... discussing technique of artificial respiration... Y.W. giving ten weeks' instruction... survivors coming up for badges and pins.

Other Sports

Guard!...

Red and yellow pinnies for panting hockey and basketball players... golf balls flying in gay abandon over the fence... students defeated by Faculty in the Spring Baseball Game year after year, while spectators munch peanuts... Spring and the backyard may see tennis and badminton racquets... also peek at Spring-fever smokers...

Where we all shine...

Typography

Are attractive and related type faces used throughout the book? Does typography suit the plan of book? Is it easy to read? Is there a proper relationship between body type, headings and identifications? Are the following common faults avoided: too many type families or sizes; type used too black or too heavy; body type too small for length of the line; excessive use of all-capitals?

Average Score 15

Typography ..... Your Score 30

Printing

Do opposite pages line up properly? Are pages properly backed up? (Hold a sheet of your book to the light and note whether or not the page behind lines up at the margins exactly with the page in front). Are bleed pictures properly trimmed? Is the color work perfectly registered? (i.e. does each color fit exactly the spots for which it is intended?) Is the ink distribution uniform throughout the book, or are some pages light and others dark in color? Are the pages free from offset (smudges or spots on the paper)? from broken type? from work-ups (spacing material that registers)?

Average Score 15

Printing ..... Your Score 25

This is the rating given by the National Scholastic Press Association of the University of Minnesota to one of New England's largest Annuals—printed at the Andover Press.

Typography . . . 100% above average
Presswork . . . . 67% above average

Which explains why so many yearbooks in this vicinity choose Andover to do their printing.
